1. There are attached for Headquarters and Vienna single copies of [B] report 5401 concerning two meetings which "Peter" had with ~~General FURIEDI~~ on 27 June 1955. The [B] report was received [] usual, after the next meeting, which was scheduled for 15 July, had been held.
2. The document concerns, basically, "Peter's" report to FURIEDI on the Hungarian celebration in Aachen, Germany, on 25 June, on "Peter's" meeting there with General ZAKO, on the inauguration of the Hungarian House (in Brussels?) and on a meeting which "Peter" had on 27 June with General FARKAS in the home of Istvan ANDREASKY in Brussels.
3. FURIEDI mentioned to "Peter" that, for urgent meetings, "Peter" should call FURIEDI at 43 83 92 and identify himself as the tailor TOT. One hour after the call, the rendezvous will take place at the point arranged at the previous meeting for the next normal meeting. The number given by FURIEDI is not that listed for the Hungarian Legation in the current telephone directory. [] will be asked to identify the number.
